

Theoretical change in SEW

The distribution effects of a change in capacity are depended on these effectors:

- The slope of the demand and supply curves.
- The amount of consumer and producers in each area.

This means that in this case where more cheap production are used the consumers lose.

